6. INFORMATION IN SUPPORT OF THIS APPLICATION

You may use this space to provide any information you wish, including any interest or unpaid activity. Ensure that you provide a full description of all skills, knowledge and experience that you feel are relevant to the post for which you are applying. Please restrict any additional information you wish to supply to two sides of A4 paper (this does not apply to Disabled applicants)

Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act (2006)

In accordance with the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006, the employer requires new members of staff to provide documentary evidence that they are entitled to undertake the position applied for/have an ongoing entitlement to live and work in the United Kingdom. Therefore, all candidates shortlisted for interview are required to complete a declaration and to produce acceptable specified documentary evidence at interview.

I confirm that I am legally entitled to work in the UK

Online Searches

In accordance with paragraph 221 of Keeping Children Safe in Education 2023, the <<School/Academy/Trust>> will undertake Online Searches for shortlisted candidates. This is to assist in the identification of any incidences or issues that may have happened and are publicly available online, which the <<school/academy/trust>> might wish to explore with the applicant at interview.

I can confirm that I understand this requirement in line with Keeping Children Safe in Education 2023

Working/Living Overseas

Have you worked or lived overseas in the past 10 years for a period of 12 months or longer whilst over the age of 18?

Yes

No

The application process for criminal records checks or 'Certificates of Good Character' for someone from overseas varies from country to country. You'll have to apply in the country or to the relevant embassy in the UK.

Certificates of Good Character MUST be provided if appointed.

Please read the guidance document if you have any queries. If you have any questions on applying for a criminal record check in the UK, please contact the Disclosure & Barring Service.

Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act (2006)

The employer is obliged by law to operate a checking procedure for employees who have substantial access to children and young people.

I confirm that I am not barred by the Disclosure & Barring Service from working with or applying to work with children or included on the DBS Children's Barred List

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

All posts involving direct contact with children are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. However, amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013 & 2020) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected'. These are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Ministry of Justice website.

Shortlisted candidates will be asked to provide details of all unspent convictions and those that would not be filtered, prior to the date of the interview. You may be asked for further information about your criminal history during the recruitment process. If your application is successful, this self-disclosure information will be checked against information from the Disclosure & Barring Service before your appointment is confirmed.

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

The information detailed in this application form will be used in the Trust/School's Recruitment and Selection process. It will also be used to monitor the effectiveness of the Trust's policies and practices and in particular its Equal Opportunities Policy. This monitoring is for statistical purposes only and you will not be identifiable from this process. However, your personal details, contained in the application form may be used in the prevention and detection of fraud. Where this occurs you will be identifiable.

The Trust/School will store your details for a retention period of one year and your personal data will be deleted automatically once the data retention period is reached. Should you wish to remove your details prior to automatic deletion, please contact us. For a copy of our full Privacy Notice for Staff, please visit the school's website.
